Home on the Ridge

I

We meet here each year
With love and good cheer
To extend hospitality's hand
To kindred and friend
We welcome you in—as a part
Of the McMurtry clan.

From over the sea—
To the "Land of the Free"
The first of our tribe made his stand
And for those who have gone,
We will still "Carry on"
Our part in the "McMurtry Clan"

II

This tradition we leave
That the eldest receive
The cane of our clansman to hold
In honor and pride—
Till they walk side by side
The Master—to enter His fold
And the young generation—who add to our clan.

Each link in the McMurtry chain
For those you hold dear
Keep faith year by year
This custom shall ever remain.

CHORUS

Home! Home on the ridge
Together we ever will stand
As the years roll away
We will cherish this day
To meet, "The great McMurtry Clan."

"The Great McMurtry Clan"

I

I've received an invitation,
Which has caused me much elation,
And I'm going to accept it if I can.
'Tis for the first Sunday in September,
A day we all remember,
'Tis a meeting of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

II

Get out the family fliver,
Or your streamlined Ford V-8,
Or perhaps the old farm wagon
If it will not make you late.
Pack the lunch box and the kiddies
Just as closely as you can,
Then hurry to the gathering of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

III

From the hills of Bonnie Scotland,
And from Erin's Emerald Isle,
Came those sturdy, brave forefathers,
Who sailed for many a mile
Over dangerous waters to a freer, newer land,
And begun the first foundation of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

VII

Though we'd like to have you here today
To meet with us again,
You're free from all your troubles,
Your sorrows and your pains.
And sometime in the future years,
We'll meet you if we can
And join in the mighty chorus of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

IV
No matter to which corner of this world,
You care to roam,
E'er the first Sunday in September
You always should start for home.
Begin your trek real early,
Have all the time you can,
But never miss a gathering of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

V

And today it is a custom,
When the cards are in the mail,
To plan to put each task aside,
They do not wish to fail.
And from the frozen lakes of Michigan,
To Florida's sunny land,
Begins the mighty gathering of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

VI

And to those who started with us
Ten years ago today,
But whose places now are vacant,
To you we wish to say—
We miss you—oh so greatly,
Each woman, child, and man,
But you're up there to swell the number of
"THE GREAT McMURTRY CLAN".

McMurtry's

Some people might say that McMurtry's are weak, well they don't know of what they speak

We have out lived famine and floods, we have raised our children to respect their elders, and most put God first
Now how many families can say that?

We can call on each other when we are in need, and our hearts are as big as the sea

Our men and women are strong and proud, a truer friend can not be found

Our occupation may be brick layer or cook, but we do our best at whatever we chose

It makes me very proud to be a part of this clan

To the men who built their houses from the wood on their land with their own two hands

To the women who raised their children, and cooked and cleaned
I am very proud to be a small part of these

From doctors, to lawyers, to housewives I give you all my respect; for you are the strongest people I have ever met!

You don't think of these things when you are in your teens
But you sure left behind a great legacy

To work very hard, help a neighbor in need, put God first,
and always be proud of your birth

Why the men they can charm the birds right out of the trees;
and the women can too

Yes we may be a little rowdy but that is what makes us so grand; there is never a dull moment when one of us is around

We live to make others happy on that you can agree
So when you hear someone say we are weak send them straight to me.

THE MCMURTRY GENEALOGY BOOK

Genealogy has been a hobby of mine for about 25 years. I have discovered few people under 50 years of age are interested in where they came from, and as a result they don't send me the information about their family and especially their children. Therefore some families of the clan have not been heard from. If you are one of these, don't give up because you are not in the book. You can send in your information by May next year and we will put out an addendum and mail it to all people who purchased The Book. We have their names and addresses. So if you move please let me know. Also please let me know about new additions to the family, marriage, divorce and deaths. Use the genealogy sheet in the back of the book. My thanks go out to the previous Historians, some I can name others forgive me your names were not in the 1960 book. They are in addition to those listed on page 11, Patricia Jamison, Geneva Pickle, and Otis McMurtry. I have built on their work and in some cases copied their work. All of you are special. This book is designed for additions and should be in use for 4 or 5 generations. Being looseleaf it can be added to, or write on the opposite page. But please send me the additions and corrections so I can send to others. I will encourage you to get a durable looseleaf binder and transfer these pages to it. Your children and grandchildren will appreciate it after they pass age 50.

The Scottish Bagpiper and the map of Scotland on the cover page is by our grandson Eric Fulghum, age 20, a commercial art student, at Center Art School Pasadena California. Many thanks go to Mrs. Florence Moss who assisted with the typing, and to my wife Sarah, who endured about 500 hours of clutter while this book was in the making. She was inspired to write the following poem.

THINGS TO REMEMBER WHEN MAKING YOUR WILL

The McMurtry Clan is now a corporation which means with a majority vote of the members the officers can make purchases and the ownership will belong to the Clan indefinitely. The purchases may be in the area of land or farms or houses when a good buy is available. To do this the Clan must have money. Money can come from donations and the giver is assured the funds are safe and earning interest. The funds are controlled by the officers and held in trust by the treasurer John Sumner McMurtry Jr. Even though the officers change every two years, this does not effect the funds.

Many people writing their wills think only in terms of cash. Yet gifts other than money are often equally welcomed and helpful. We are delighted when our friends leave us a home, a farm, other real estate, business property, stocks and bonds, automobiles, trucks, furniture, jewelry, antiques, art collections, insurance policies with the Clan as beneficiary, etc. For example you may have stocks that may have a loss, you can sell them and may be able to take a deduction on your income tax, and give the proceeds to the Clan. The Corporation at this time is not a tax exempt corporation. Some such bequest can be put to direct use. Others we sell or hold, to sell later if we anticipate an increase in value.

Such property gifts often make more sense from your standpoint, too. Your attorney or tax advisor can point out how you can avoid certain taxes by giving property direct rather than having your executor sell it in order to make a cash bequest. Chances are, you will give away or sell some of your property while you are still living. You will have to rewrite your will each time you do this. Many people die without a will, they always intended to make one. If you have not made out a written will, then the state will decide what to do with your property, and it may not be the way you would like to have it settled. If you don't have a will, now is the time to start one, make some notes before going to an attorney and remember to put "THE McMURTRY CLAN OF TENNESSEE INC." in your will.

DEFINITION OF THE WORD CLAN

"Clan" was the name applied to a group of Kinsmen united under a chief and claiming a common ancestry. They lived as one great family on the lands they possessed. The clansmen or septs supported their chief with remarkable loyalty. In the 13th century, the clans rose to prominence. Records of their separate history have been kept enabling all Highlanders to trace their ancestors to that period and in some cases, to a much earlier date. The MacMurtrie (try)'s is a sept under the Stuart (Stewart) of Bute. The Isle of Bute is located in south western Scotland. The principle city is Rothesay. This section of Scotland is known as The Clyde Coast. The telephone directory list 47 MacMurtries as of 1984.

WEARING THE TARTAN

It is estimated there are about 4,000 different patterns of "Tartans", each particular pattern is known as a sett. The Tartan was the identity of the clansmen and helpful to know who's side you were on when in battle. The great dividing-line in the history of Scottish Tartans was the Jacobite Rising in 1745. After the defeat of Prince Charles Edward Stuart and his Highland followers, various Acts of Parliament were passed, the aim of which was to disarm the Highlanders and to destroy the clan spirit by prohibiting the wearing of traditional Highland dress. This ban lasted of 36 years. At the present day there is no doubt about the lasting popularity of Tartan. True, one can have too much in the way of mass-produced tartan-decorated souvenirs, but as a dress material tartan has an enduring appeal. Certainly few women visitors can resist the temptation of a well cut tartan skirt worn with fine Scottish woollens. The Tartan dress can be a cap, tie, sash, scarf, shawl, shirt, socks or kilts. The patterns for the MacMurtries(try) are: Royal Stuart (red, yellow, blue), This is supposed to be worn only by royalty and is now considered to be the Royal Tartan of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain. So says "The Heraldic Advisor", P.E. Stewart-Blackler. However this Tartan is very popular throughout the United States. Other Tartans for this clan are: Stewart Hunting (green), Stewart dress(gray), Stewart old (green, blue), Stewart Prince Charles Edward (red, black), Stewart of Appin (red). Kilts were considered to be worn only by men. Women discovered them shortly after World War II when tartan kilts, skirts, scarfs and jumpers became so popular.

MacMurtrie In Scotland

SURNAMES of SCOTLAND: - MacMurtrie - from - MacCurdy - MacKirby - Bute - 16 th century - (Clan) Stuart.

DEFINITION of THE WORD "MAC":

"Mac has become a part of a great many Scottish Surnames and simply means "Son" - i.e., MacDonald and MacLeod meaning son of Donald, and Son of Leod. It is sometimes spelt "M" or "Mc" but is pronounced the same as "Mac"

In some cases "Son" is used in place of "Mac" and in others dropped: MacDonald, Donaldson, Donald: MacNichol, Nicholson, Nichol, etc.

STUART of BUTE:

The beautiful Isle of Bute formed part of the domain of Walter, the first High Steward, and remained a Stewart possession except for a brief Norse occupation. But only after 1385 did a family branch become established there, when Sir John Stewart a son of King Robert II, was appointed hereditary Sheriff of Bute and Arran; and his descendants still hold the Marquisate of Bute.

The spelling Stuart originated with some Stewarts living in France where the alphabet has no "W". Adopted there also by Mary Queen of Scots, it became fashionable when She continued using it on Her return. Steuart was a compromise between the two forms.

MCMURTRY (IE) IN EARLY N.J.

Early Historians fix the arrival of McMurtry (ie) Immigrants: Joseph, Robert and Thomas with his wife Mary, in the Roxiticus area as ca 1720.

It is presumed that the Immigrants, McMurtry (ie) spent several years in the vicinity of Roxiticus as is noted by the following quotation from SNELL'S HISTORY OF SUSSEX CO., N.J., page 430. viz: "In 1735 three Bros. named Green settled in that part known as Old Greenwich, now known as OXFORD Twp. They were soon followed by the Shippens, McMurtries, McKees, McCrackens et al, all of whom were Scotch-Irish Presbyterians. The distance Roxiticus to Oxford is approx 25 miles. Roxiticus is located in Morris Co., N.J. near the border line of Somerset Co., N.J.

Thomas McMurtry's land which he selected for a home was located in Bernards Township, Somerset Co., N.J. just across the line and near which later The Town of Basking Ridge grew up. According to Rich'd McMurtry of Berkley, Ca. Thomas McMurtry is mentioned regarding a land survey 1741.

Thomas is said to have been squatting on East Jersey land when it was purchased by John Budd. This 47 acre plot referred to as lot #12 at Rocksiticus was surveyed by order of James Alexander, Surveyor General of The East & West Jerseys and returned to John Budd 11/13/1742. Between this date and 1747 Thomas McMurtry purchased this land from John Budd and made it his home until his death. Thomas made his WILL 1785 and died 1788. The Will was probated in Somerset Co., N.J.

This "McMurtry Clan" is composed of the many descendants of John McMurtry, Esq., Soldier, of the American Revolution, and pioneer of Sumner County, Tennessee.

The first reunion was held in 1926, at the home of Rollin McMurtry on Highway 31W near White House, Sumner County, Tennessee. In 1934, "The Clan" was organized and established, at which time by-laws were adopted and the first officers were elected.

Annual meetings have been held at various places over the years on Sunday prior to Labor Day. For the past several years they have been held at the original meeting place which is now the home of Ralph McMurtry. Lunch is spread, old acquaintances renewed, family history discussed, and a merry time is had by all. Visitors are welcome and all "Clansmen" are urged to attend.

Special acknowledgment is hereby extended to those former historians and others, without whose help the "Clan Geneology" would have been far less complete. Data Re: John McMurtry

Immigrant Thomas McMurtry with his wife Mary and brothers Robert and Joseph, also two sisters whose husbands were James Hanna and Robert Hocey came to America from North Ireland about 1720 and settled in New Jersey where they later purchased a large tract of land (1250 acres) on the Delaware River taking in what is now the town of Belvedere.

Thomas McMurtry had three sons, James, Thomas Jr., and Robert; also a daughter who married Zepheniah Martin, an ancestor of Senator Edward Martin of Pennsylvania.

In the year 1769, Thomas McMurtry divided his land among his children. In the year 1773, James McMurtry, the eldest son of Immigrant Thomas, sold his share to his first cousin John (Judge) McMurtry, son of immigrant Joseph McMurtry and moved his family to Franklin County, Pennsylvania or thereabouts. This family consisted of wife Agnes; sons John, James, and Joseph, and daughter Jane.

John, James, and sister Jane later emigrated to Orange County, North Carolina and Sumner County, Tennessee. Joseph McMurtry later emigrated to Crawford County, Pennsylvania.

In June or July 1775, records show John McMurtry of Franklin County, Pennsylvania, joined the company of riflemen commanded by Capt. James Chambers. He served until August 1780, as Cpl., Sgt., Sgt. Major, and Ensign in the First Pennsylvania Regiment when he resigned and went to Philadelphia and sailed aboard "The Fair American", a privateer mounting sixteen guns, commanded by Capt. Decatur.

Info Re: John McMurtry

Records of Somerset Co., N.J., show that he remained in that county through, or until, 1785, when he removed in company with others, probably sister Jane, brother James, and probably James Bowers and a Lex Kirkpatrick, to Orange Co., N.C., where he purchased 150 acres of land, 8 Sept. 1786, from John Walraven, the deed being witnessed by James McMurtry.

John McMurtry sold this 150 acres 3 Sept. 1793, to Isaac Dorris (the deed being witnessed by John, Wm. and Robt. Dorris) and removed to Sumner Co., Tennessee, and is shown as a taxpayer of that county, 1794. It is said by my elders that he built a "thatch-top" house on the banks of Drakes Creek about one and one-half miles up creek from Shackle-Island --a crossroads evidently named after Phillip Shackler or Shackles, a very early settler and large land holder of that section. It is said that John McMurtry in building this house provided a tunnel as a way of escape in event of attack by Indians.

In April 1797, John McMurtry purchased from Edward Gwinn, 83 acres - 12 perches of land, located north and to the rear of Old Beech Presbyterian Church on Long Hollow Pike, same district, Sumner County, Tennessee, and lived there until his death in 1841. His log house, now unused, still stands this, 1962.

Deed records in Gallatin, County seat of Sumner County, Tennessee, show John McMurtry and James Kirkpatrick to be named as trustees in the establishment of Old Beech Church and burying ground. Five acres of land was deeded for 50 cents by William Montgomery and Francis Catron, 1798.

Info Re: John McMurtry

October 26, 1799, John McMurtry was appointed a Magistrate by John Sevier, first Governor of Tennessee. During good behavior John McMurtry was appointed Coroner of Sumner Co.

John McMurtry received a North Carolina grant of 640 acres on Manskers Creek in 1793, the disposal of which is not known.

For his services in the Revolution, John McMurtry received a pension (w1448) of $8 per month starting 1 Jan. 1828, on the roll of West Tennessee, mailed to Montgomery's Post-Office, Sumner County, Tennessee.

John McMurtry died 15 March 1841. His will is recorded at Gallatin, Tennessee. His wife, Margaret, died 14 April 1846.

Two ancient stones attest the resting place of this noble couple in the cemetery at Old Beech Cumberland Presbyterian Church today. At the foot of the grave of John McMurtry, Esq., is a bronze plaque, placed there by the D.A.R., 1948, which reads:

JOHN MCMURTRY
REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER
1775 - 1783

Otis D. McMurtry
Nashville, Tenn.
1962

The D.A.R. marker for John McMurtry was placed in Old Beech Cemetery in 1948 at the suggestion of my father (Luther David Ralph). My sister Juanita, made the proper contacts and the Sumner County Chapter of D.A.R. (Daughters of American Revolution) had the marker made up. Then she and others placed the marker at the grave site. The first such in the cemetery.

Data Re: John McMurtry

During his period of service John McMurtry participated in the siege of Boston, the battles of White Plains and Long Island, N. Y., Germantown, Paoli, Princeton, Trenton, and perhaps others.

He had the misfortune of accidently shooting a man, John Penn, December 1775, by means of his rifle going off accidently.

Evidently his reason for resigning the Continental Army was the fact that his father James died about this time as indicated in the will of Immigrant Thomas McMurtry, dated 1785, where mention is made of "the children of my eldest son James." (Original will now 1962, is on file in the office of the Secy. of State, Trenton, N. J.)

John McMurtry, after five years' service in George Washington's Continental Army, returned to Somerset County, N.J., and married 29 January 1781, Margaret Gomer, a daughter of Henry and Mary Gomer of same county. To this happy union were born the following children:

- I. - Henry, born 6 Dec. 1781, Somerset Co., N. J.
- II. - Jean (Jenny), born 10 Oct. 1784, Somerset Co.
- III. - John, Jr., born 10 March 1787, Orange County, N. C.
- IV. - Mary (Polly), born 15 June 1796, Sumner Co., Tenn.
- V. - Asa, born 1 May 1799, Sumner Co., Tenn.
- VI. - Thos. Wilkerson, born 5 Sept. 1802, Sumner Co., Tenn.

NOTE: James, born 1789, died 1795; Peggy, born 1800, died young.

WILL

In the Name of God, Amen: I, John McMurtry, being in reasonable health at this time, yet of sound mind and memory, do take this opportunity to make this, my last will, in manner following.

First, I resign my Soul to God, who gave it, and my Body to the earth from whence it came, to be buried at the discretion hereinafter named.

I leave to my wife, Peggy McMurtry, the plantation on which I live, at the time, with all that I own for her support during ner lifetime. But, should sne marry again, she is to have only my mare called Fly, and saddle and bed, and go off the plantation with her husband.

She is not to give away any of the property to one child, more than another of the children. They must all share alike.

I leave my sister, Jane Hammond, the house and lot where John Garrett, Jr., now lives, with wood for her fire and water from my spring, for her use, if she will live on it. But, if she will not live there, it returns to the plantation again.

When my wife, Peggy McMurtry, dies, or marries, the children, Henry, John Jr., Ass, Thomas Wilkerson McMurtry, Jenny Garrett and Polly Forrester, can divide the land if they can agree about it. If they cannot agree, it must be sold with the rest of the property and the money equally divided with the children.

Should my wife, Peggy McMurtry, think she has more property when I die than she wants to keep, she can sell it and live on the money.

Should my wife, Peggy McMurtry, think proper to give up her claim on the place and property to her children, so as they could have their share at my death, she may do it, they, giving her bond and security for so much money, yearly, or to support her during life.

The names of my executors are:

Dedication of John McMurtry's Cabin October 30, 1999

This is the cabin of my ancestor, John McMurtry, that he built soon after he came to Shackle Island, Hendersonville, Tennessee, from Pennsylvania where he served in the American Revolution.

It has been owned by his descendants for over 200 years and is now owned by Jamie and Mike Bowman who recieved it through the will of my uncle James Cantrell Ralph, who was Jamie's grandfather and a descendant of John McMurtry.

Through the skill and ingenuity of members of Uncle Jim's family it was moved to its present location on land once owned by William Montgomery who settled at Shackle Island near the time John did.

It was moved once before to a spot nearer a spring to make the trip from the kitchen to the spring in less danger of Indian attacks.

John McMurtry was coroner for Sumner County, Tennessee, during the 1812 period, 1784 through 1815.

As president of the Col. Thomas Hart Benton Chapter, Tennessee Society Daughters of 1812, and on behalf of the chapter, I thank Jamie, Mike and all who maintained the house and grounds, for letting us place the plaque on the wall and dedicate it this day, October 30, 1999.

Old Brick is the oldest of several homes in Shackle Island built in the late 18th century along with Beech Cumberland Presbyterian church. It was the home of William Montgomery who owned large tracts of land in the vicinity and gave the land for the Beech Church.

My Uncle Jim purchased it from the Montgomery family and Nettie Sue Scott, his daughter who now owns it with her husband John D. Scott now live in it.

She and Betty Lou Hunter, her twin sister grew up here.

The house once housed the U. S. Post Office for Worsham, Tennessee.

Program to Dedicate John McMurtry's Cabin,
October 30, 1999

Eulogy in tribute to the memory of John McMurtry and other American soldiers and patriots, by Sue Groves, Chaplain of The Col. Thomas Hart Benton Chapter of 1812.

Pledge of Allegiance to The Flag of The United States of America will be led by Carolyn (Mrs. Chester) Martin, Treasurer of Col. Thomas Hart Benton Chapter of 1812 and one of the State Chairmen of The Tennessee Society of 1812. Chet is making pictures for us.

Importance of marking historic landmarks will be discussed by Janie (Mrs. Kenneth) York, President of Tennessee Daughters of 1812.

Interesting Facts of the Time of The American Revolution will be given by Reverend Malcolm Patton, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Gallatin, Tennessee. Malcolm is a descendant of John McMurtry.

The McMurtry Clan of Tennessee and stories handed down in the family will be an interesting topic that Harold McMurtry, a former Mayor of Brentwood and a descendant of this ancestor, will discuss.

Jamie, Mike and anyone who has helped to re-locate and restore and those who help maintained the cabin and grounds will unveil the plaque placed on the wall for this dedication.

I want to thank them and everyone who participated in this program. I thank Chet Martin for taking pictures (he's excellent).

Reverend Patton (Malcolm) will dismiss us with prayer.

TO MA

Ma, it's almost evening
 The sun is hanging low
 Friends and loved ones grieving
 Hate to see you go.

But, Heaven will be lovely, Ma
 There'll be no teardrops there
 Your worries will be over
 You'll be free from every care.

Wrinkles have come into your face
 We know you have grown old
 But we're so glad they're on your face
 And not upon your soul.

You've done a lot of living, Ma
 You've made a lot of friends
 You've been so forgiving and
 You've always made amends.

Your life's an inspiration
 For you were good and true
 Sweet and kind to others
 But now your life's "not through."

For just as you are leaving
 Christ will take your hand
 Go with you on your journey
 To a fairer, brighter, Land.

And there you'll join your friends
 All your loved ones gone before
 Live in the HOLY CITY
 And be happy evermore.
